Dear Authors,
Please check your inbox email from ECopyright@ieee.org asked you to create your e-copyright, click on the link provided on the email from ECopyright@ieee.org and please login with the username and password given from that email, just follow the instruction to create e-copyright, all information such as paper title and author is provided, you just need to confirm and agree to the data.
The email about copyright from ECopyright@ieee.org is sent only to one email correspondence (please check all authors who received the email).
If you didn't receive the email from ECopyright@ieee.org, please inform us.

Please create your copyright as soon as possible before August, 27th 2018, because your e-copyright have to be finished before the conference start.
If you find something wrong with the title of your paper or wrong author in the copyright data from IEEE, you can manual edit on the e-copyright website or you can contact us.

If you already create your e-copyright, just ignore this email.

Thank you for your attention

Regards,
